R 5,000.00

Framed Price- R 6 000.00

Vroee stilte/Early silence (2014) was captured at dawn, “just as the darkness lifted”. Periwinkle peaks emerge as light is gently ushered in on the horizon, while the foregrounded mountains remain in the depths of shadow. There is a sense of spaciousness as the rolling hills and skyscape flow seamlessly into one another.
