

YERATHEL protect me from myself

R 60,000.00

Yerathel is my gardian angel.
I believe that the force inside me prevent from having what I want,
is the same force protecting me, from dying.
For what my ego wants, might be different from what my self needs.
The angel id depicted with solid wings that protect him, instead of being light and floating.
The back is painted as chuch stained glass.
The body is painted as traditionnal paintings for dance ceremonies.
My angel protects me.
He is an angel. Yet he is my angel.
This is my very own interpretation of him.
My gift to him.
