

French

R 9,000.00

This is a new (2023) painting by artist Koos Groenewald.

This work is an example in the artist's latest self enquiry around "when is a painting finished?". Koos has the ability to snatch a sneaky moment in time, and sometimes the moment is enough, the embellishments would detract from the very now he has managed to secure. Again, his work transports everyone into their own experiences, imaginations or memories.

"French" really puts the french kiss front and center. And that's exactly what we love about it.
