A Secret Chord is an ode to embracing oneself. This composition beautifully portrays various facets that define my identity, passions, and pleasures. The Blue Chord symbolizes my personal quest for spiritual growth. Throughout my life, I have grappled with the notion of being unconditionally loved by God, and this piece serves as a testament to that inner struggle. It delves into the depths of my insecurities, making it a challenging creation to bring forth.

In the end, this composition represents the collective essence of humanity, encompassing our true selves and our innate desire for self-acceptance, regardless of the purpose we strive for in life.
