

Ghost in the Rainbow

R 22,000.00

Cables (possibly Fibre Optics) on the roadside in the Karoo Desert.

The title is borrowed from an article in Atlas Obscura that explores the myth of the 'Brocken Spectre', named after the German mountain where it is most often seen. This atmospheric optical illusion inspired Goethe's Faust.

Medium	Ceramic print on glass
Height	50.00 cm
Width	60.00 cm
Artist	Brett Rubin
Year	2012

