

Fly Swift fly 1

R 10,500.00

Time is swift, it races by; Opportunities are born and die... Still, you wait and will not try - A bird with wings who dares not rise and fly. A.A.Milne

To fly without such precision the swift is a bird who carries me to places I cannot go. In the time of a pandemic, I dream I am on the back of a swift flying to places that inspire and lend me their culture to be able to take my brush and paint in isolation.
